

Thankfulness

There are many qualities that people have that I'm thankful for. one quality I have is honesty because I understand the result of lying. It usually ends in that you're guilty and then you reveal the truth and you become sad because you lied and it's just a disaster.

So I know what will happen if you lie but sometimes people lie and get away with it. That's why I am thankful for my personality. Once I was playing a game when my mom yelled from the kitchen "Did you do your homework" I respond with "YES" but that was a lie I never did my homework and I remembered the last time I didn't do my homework and it was chaos so i turned of my game and did my homework so i can actually be saying the truth instead of lying.

THE END.
