

Thankfulness

*When you look for intelligence
Or integrity
The only thing you find in my brain
Is creativity
A beautiful word resembling Dreams coming to life as they unwrap in your mind*

*In there ,There is also a blank
One to be filled up
With who knows what
Its empty
And no matter how hard you try
You can't fill it up
Its crazy*

*You try your hardest
But you can't
And one day....
You do
It feels awesome
You tried your hardest
And it was worth it
You see your idea clearly
No blanks
Or gaps
its beautiful
And honestly the best thing*

*so the thing i am thankful for
The part of me i adore
The thing that comes up with ideas galore
Its my creativity
And i can always count on it so thats what im thankful for*
