

Thankfulness

There are many qualities that people have that i'm thankful for im thankful for myself because i'm happy that i even made friends and i'm also thankful for myself because i have a big family and i have parents because they are kind to me and helpful and caring to me even if i'm mean to them sometimes they would still love me.im thankful for myself because i have a house and i have a roof over my head.

I am honest because i'm always honest to someone if they ask me something because it's never right to not tell the truth to somebody because it would always come to you but if its a stranger asking u questions
