

Thankfulness

There are many qualities that people have that I'm thankful for. One quality that I have is honesty because I Am always honest to myself and to my parents. I sometimes do bad things when it comes to mind. It feels like someone is controlling me to do something bad but when my mom or dad finds out I always tell the truth whether I am keeping it as a secret they would still tell me to be honest with myself. I have secrets that neither my mom or dad nor my family does not know about. Sometimes I went to tell them but it doesn't seem right so I always go to my room and write notes to my mom to tell her the truth about my secret. Sometimes when I come back from school I don't usually do my homework because I do it in last minute but when my parents knew about this I was in serious trouble they would sit in the couch and tell me what was I doing when I got back from school I felt the my brain was empty with words but I to be honest with myself so I told them everything when I got back from school. Also I always steal stuff from my house, when I see money on the floor I look around and I snatch it. That makes me have bigger problems. So in my whole life lying is forbidden for me but I always tell the truth whether is a secret or bad thing I am always honest with myself.
