

Thankfulness

There are many qualities that people have that I am thankful for.

One quality that I am most thankful for is my wholeheartedness. I am thankful for my wholeheartedness because I love helping people, it makes me feel good about myself. I also am thankful for my wholeheartedness because I love helping people and it makes me want to help people each and every single time. Everyday I try to show my wholeheartedness by giving people nice, respectful compliments. One way I show my wholeheartedness is by giving people a helping hand wherever I go. One time when I was using my wholeheartedness was when I was on the train and two older lady's were getting on the same stop as me, so I decided to let them go first to get off the stop. After I was waiting for my mom to get off the stop I still saw the old lady's waiting, and so they told my mom how I was being so sweet and respectful to them, then my mom was very happy about the good news she heard about me. My mother was very proud of how she raised me to always be kind to others, by using my wholeheartedness. It makes my heart melt when people tell my mother that I am The cutest, respectful little girl. I love being wholehearted because it makes me feel like an amazing human being.
