Thankfulness

There are many qualities that people have, the qualities that I am thankful for are my mom and dad because they are the reason I live a good and healthy life. one reason why I am thankful for my parents is because they buy me things and they put a roof over my head and food on my plate and I really love them for doing everything they can do to treat me good. second reason why I am thankful for my parents is because they do everything they can to provide for me. last reason why i'm thankful for my parents is because they are always there for me anytime im happy, sad and more.

Courage

Times when I had courage were when we needed a fumble in our football game and everybody was crying because they thought they were going to lose so I said to myself I'm going to get the fumble and when I went on the field I got the tackle and the fumble and we won the game. second time I had courage is when my friend was crying because he got a 56% on his test and I said that you don't always have to pass and when I said that he felt better and the next time we had a test he got a 95%. third time I had courage is when my mom was crying over a movie and i had to comfort her so she can feel better. last time I had courage is when I was playing fortnite and my friends all died and it was only me so I had to try and get the win and my friends were saying i was going to lose so when they said that I said no i'm not and I got the win for me and my friends.

Wholeheartedness

A time when I was wholehearted is when I saw a stray cat starving and I went to the store to get it food and water and when I got back I saw the cat limping away from where I saw him, I run to the cat and he hissed at me so i just place down the food and water and walk away and ever since that day he comes to my house and meows for food. second time I was wholehearted is when my cousin was crying because he cut himself with a scissor and it was bleeding so I went to the bathroom and got a bandage and wrapped it around his finger and he said thank you. third time I was wholehearted is when I saw a little kid lost in a store and I asked him where are his parents and he said that he doesn't know so I ask if he know his moms number and he said yea so I got his moms number and called his mom and said that he was lost and she needed to get him and in the past 5 min she came and thanked me for staying with him.

Gratefulness

I am grateful for my dad because he is the best dad i have and i love him.another reason why i'm grateful for my dad is because she gets me anything i need.second reason why i am grateful for my dad is because he makes me happy all the time.last reason why i am grateful for my dad is because he treats me good and loves me

Appreciationess
