

Thankfulness

There are many qualities that people have that I'm thankful for. One quality that I have is my kindness. I'm thankful for my kindness because without it no one would want to be my friend since I would be rude and show an attitude to them. I know I have kindness because I remember this one time when I showed kindness was when my sister was doing homework and she needed help so I decided to help her. This is why I think I show kindness to everyone that is around me.
