Generosity

The quality that I have that I am thankful for is "Generosity." To have "Generosity" means to give. I am happy to give time, money, food, or kindness to people in need.

My way of being generous is when I give away my gently used clothes and toys to the people in need. Generosity is putting others before myself. At church during Christmas time, I take a tag off the giving tree and buy a present for the child who may not have as many presents as me on Christmas morning. During Thanksgiving and other times of the year I donate cans of food for the poor. I know that when I am generous it makes me feel good about myself knowing I can bring a smile to someone's face.
