

“ What qualities that do you have that you are thankful for “

I am thankful for three qualities that make me who I am. One that I am a caring person. Two, I have a photographic memory and third I am different in a good way from my friends. I am caring because if someone gets hurt I go check on them. If someone feels left out I say they can play with me. If someone is being mean to one of my friends I tell them to stop and see if her feelings are hurt.

I am thankful for having a photographic memory because I can remember everything I need to know. It helps me remember stuff for tests. It also helps me help people by remembering homework when my friends forget. If someone needs help finding an answer on a page for the teacher I tell them what page to look at and where it is. I know this will also help me when I get older for high school and college.

I am different because I have one hearing aid and I am getting another one soon. When someone feels different and they tell me, I say to them they are just themselves. What makes you different means you are stronger, smarter and even more beautiful. Being different makes you more caring of anyone who is different in the world.
