

I am truly thankful for being smart and hardworking.

I am thankful that I am smart because in class I can solve my multiplication tables and division facts fast. I'm thankful that I am hardworking because I can do my homework all myself and only ask my mom or dad the little questions. I like that I am smart because when family is over my grandma or mom can help me with baking.

