

I am thankful for sports because it is fun and gives a use for energy.

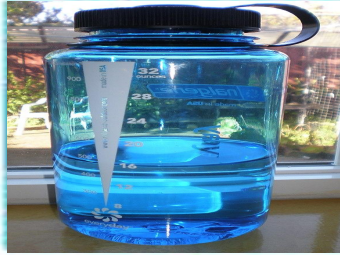

I am thankful for drinks because you would die if you do not have drinks.

I am thankful for God/Jesus because they created life without them nothing would be alive.

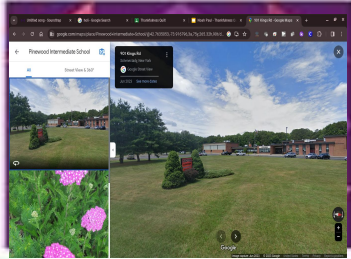

I am thankful for phones because they give you a way of texting people.

I am thankful for friends because they keep you happy.

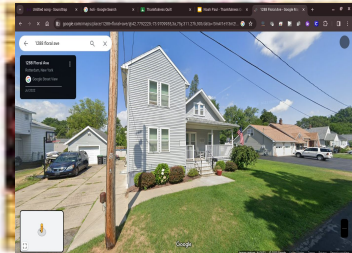

I am thankful for my house because it gives me a roof above my head.

I am thankful for food because you would starve without food.

I am thankful for furniture because they give you a comfortable place to sit.

I am thankful for school because they give byou form of education and you can make new friends.

I am thankful for life because you can not make friends and enjoy songs school and more.

