

Qualities I am Thankful For

By : Aria Desmond

I am thankful for the qualities that I have today. They make me who I am and help me in life . My qualities are great in every way.

One of the qualities that I'm thankful for is being artistic. I love being artistic because you can do so many things with art. These include : painting, coloring, charcoal, tie dye, and 3d art!

Another quality I'm thankful for is being energetic. Being energetic can be great! Ways being energetic can help in : sports, school, work, and lots of other activities!

As a person I have many qualities but being artistic and being energetic stand out to me the most. I am thankful for these qualities that help me in life. I like my qualities and I think my friends and family do too!
