

Qualities I am Thankful For

By: Jayden Ocasio

There are many qualities about myself that I am thankful for.

These qualities I am thankful for are that I am strong, athletic, and funny. I am so thankful for my qualities.

One of the qualities about myself is my strength. It helps my family because I lift things up so my mom can get under them and I help my sisters to carry their metal net and my punching bag. I lift the couch so my mom can clean.

Another quality about myself is I am kind. When I see someone feel bad or sad I give them a hug and I make them laugh. I dance for my mom to make her laugh and my sisters too. I also help my dad by sweeping the garage.
