

Noah Cruz

I think I am brave, creative, and funny.
Being brave helps me drink medicine when I am sick. It also helps me make peace between my sisters when they are fighting.
My creative side likes to draw and take things apart and put them back together.
Sometimes I say very funny things that make people laugh.