Qualities I'm Thankful For

Some qualities that make me unique are that I'm artistic. Being artistic makes me unique because I am creative and imaginative. I think it is important because it can help me live in life and to show people that I am creative. It shows that I am imaginative because it can show me that I know what I am doing and that I can show people that I am good at being an artist.

Another quality is patience. It can help me show people how I can be quiet and how I can wait in really long lines. It also shows me that I can wait without being upset and not to be angry or annoyed. It also shows people how I act and how I seek inner peace.

The third quality is being responsible. I am responsible in many ways. One way is feeding my pets every day. Another way I show responsibility is by doing my chores such as vacuuming the stairs for my mom, and feeding my fish so it can stay nice and healthy and it can stay alive. Lastly, I am responsible for looking out for myself and others.

The fourth quality is kindness. I show kindness in many ways. One way is when I am nice to my friend. When he is sad and no one is talking to him I go and see if he's okay and then I talk to him and I will make him feel better. Another way I show kindness is by showing goodwill.

I think these qualities are important. Being responsible, artistic, kind and having patience makes me who I am today.
