Thankful Essay

I am thankful for many qualities that I possess. One of those qualities is being athletic. I chose it because I enjoy playing sports and I enjoy working hard to get better. I chose this quality because someday I would like to be in the NFL because I love football.

Another quality I'm grateful for is the quality of being brave. I like this quality because it makes you not afraid to do many scary things, like going on a roller coaster. Being brave is important to me because it allows me to try lots of new things.

I'm also thankful for being kind because when you are kind to people, they want to be your friend. Being kind is a good thing because if no one was kind the whole world would end. Every one would be mean to each other. And there would be a lot of sad people in the world. Kindness matters.

Lastly, I am thankful for the quality of positivity. I like to believe that good things will happen. I believe the best about people. It's important because it motivates me to do my best and it affects the people around me as well. It makes them feel good.

One more quality I am thankful for is being brave. I am thankful for this quality because it helps me go through scary things. When I was in the hospital, I was scared to go to the doctor. But I was brave and I went. I was also brave when I was at the zoo and I was scared to go to the lion's den. I was brave and I went. I was also brave when I was at the store and I was scared to go to the checkout counter. I was brave and I went. I am so thankful for the quality of being brave because it helps me go through scary things that I may not have otherwise experienced.
