

Crystal Noby
7-1

I am thankful for the qualities of being an artist. I love to draw and color disney characters and it helps me relax. Art is one of my favorite subject and it is really fun to do. I also love to craft stuff and decorate my room. I am really thankful for these qualities because it has helped me to be a different and better person.