

Some qualities I'm grateful for are how hard I work on the field to get better, also how determined I am to be the best. Another quality is that I have the ability to play football but kids who are sick can't, my coach plays for his sick son who would love to play football.

BY: Kevin Michael