

BASEBALL

By Christopher DeAngelis

B aseball is a special quality for me and I am grateful for this talent of mine because I love the sport and it helps me relax.

A ctive is another quality I am grateful for and I am grateful for this quality because I love to be active and outside doing things whether its with friends, family, or maybe even strangers.

S upportive is another quality of mine and I am grateful for it because I am very good at helping people get through things or if someone is having a hard time.

E ducated is a very special quality of mine and I am very grateful because I love to get good grades in school and makes me and my family happy.

B rave is another quality I am very grateful for and I am very grateful because being brave helps me get through things and allows me to do things that I might not do without this quality.

A

dventures is another quality that I have and I am grateful for this because I love to go out and explore and go out on adventures.

L

aughing is a special quality I have and I am grateful because I love to laugh with my friends and family and always brightens the mood.

L

ighthearted is the last special quality I have and I am grateful because I love being happy and carefree.