I am thankful for

I am thankful for my cousin

I am thankful for my cousin because since the day we met we were inseparable and she never left my side

My cousin was always there for me through all my weird phases and never judged me no matter how weird they were

In some way whenever I was feeling like I didn't matter to anyone she was there to tell me what an amazing person I am and how much people care about me

Even though she doesn't live near me and doesn't go to my school if someone started a problem with me she made sure that nothing happened

My cousin has always been there for me and I am very grateful that I found the most amazing person in the world in my mind

Everytime she goes to her grandmas that's right next door to me I ask to hang and then when we see each other we run to each other and hug even if I just saw her the day before I miss her every moment I can't see her and I hope that nothing ever happens that makes us drift apart from each other because I can't live without her

I am thankful for the way she makes me feel when I'm with her and the way she makes me laugh as hard as I can

Even though she's my cousin to me she's more than that she's my best friend but most importantly my "sister" and nothing will ever make me change the way I think of her

My cousin was always there to support me in some way shape or form and I am very thankful for that and I hope it stays that way forever.
