

Qualities I am Thankful For...

Some qualities I am thankful for are being funny, being respectful to friends, family, and my teachers. These qualities make me who I am. People define me for being funny and being respectful towards others. I am thankful for being respectful because being respectful took me a long way especially in school. I got an achievement award for being respectful to teachers, and friends. Being respectful can take anybody a long way. Being respectful can get you respect. Being respectful got me 2 letters of recommendation for Xaverian. Me being respectful to my classmates.