

Selina Elfishawy
11/15/23

NDCA
Poem

I Am Thankful

I am thankful that I am a leader. I told a lot of jokes that people drew from me.

I am thankful that I have empathy. When my mom is sorrowful I feel her sadness.

I am thankful that I am intelligent. I get excellent grades.

I am thankful that I am brave. I am not afraid of many things like the dark.

I am thankful that I am good with computers. I repaired my computer once.

I am thankful that I am a fast typer. It helps when I'm in a rush.

I am thankful that I am honest. I don't like deceivers.

I am thankful that I am loyal, dependable, and trustworthy. When people tell me their secrets, I keep them.

I am thankful that I am mature. I don't act brainless.

I am thankful that I am observant, and curious. I ask many questions and understand better.

I am thankful that I am polite, and respectful. I listen to the teachers when they are speaking.

I am thankful that I am talented. I have many hobbies that I am good at.

I am thankful that I am ambitious. I pursue the best grades.

I am thankful that I am intuitive. I can tell if someone is a superior person or an awful person. I get a feeling when I see them.

I am thankful that I am a friendly person. I helped my friend when he was weeping.

I am thankful that God gave me these wonderful traits.