

Qualities i am thankful for

I am thankful for being stealthy, because then I can take anything from the cupboards downstairs. I'm also thankful for being a goofball, even though people say I'm weird, (which is true!) I like to express that by just doing goofy stuff. I'm thankful for having an urge to just draw/paint my feelings, although I mostly draw cats. I'm thankful for loving Flora AND Fauna, because they help our world be lively and full of wonder! I'm even more thankful for the way I can just be myself even if people want me to change. There's a whole bunch of things that I'm thankful for, but I can't list them! The only things I'm more thankful for then life, is my friends and family!
