

Costa H

11/12/23

I am most thankful for my family, without them I don't know that I would do, I am thankful for my family because they provide food, shelter, clothes, and love. Being provided with all these things means the world to me. Being able to have a family that cares for you is the best feeling ever, some people don't have families to care for them. I am thankful I do.