Poem:

I am truly grateful for all I have
I want to thank everyone who provides
It is truly a gift
Gratitude is a blessing
For all to share
I am truly grateful
For all the basic necessities I have
It is a gift to all
That all shall claim
Everyone deserves to be born anew
With all to be thankful for
And everyone to love
The whole world deserves to live
In grace and elegance
I have become a better person
With the help of all around me
I have all basic needs
I could ever ask for
I have nothing more to ask for
Therefore all others deserve
The same that I do

GRATITUDE!
