

IM THANKFUL FOR MY HONESTY

<----- click this turkey for funny turkey WARNING VERY FUNNY

I am thankful for my honesty because being honest is a very important thing in life. If you are not honest with people, coworkers, bosses and even you family and friends life will be very hard. And most people when you have broken or done something will be more upset if you lie than if your honest with them. So thats why its SOO important to be honest, Even when it comes to the turkey being to dry.....HAPPY THANKSGIVING
