A lot of people are homeless or have no family. They are hungry and left there to die I'm thankful for how I have a home and a family. I would do something if I could to help it's hard not to think about it if I were one of those people I would probably die if I didn't have a home or a family I would have a hard time taking care of myself. the poor innocent children were discarded from their parents life because they were different or nothing like their parents, luckily for me my parents love me no matter how weird or different i am. i cry at the thought of those children out on the streets alone with no food or home. i have a lot of things in my life i have a bed, a room, a house, friends, freedom, and especially i have a family. I really don't care if i win or not but it would be really nice if I did.NYA~!!!!!!
