

What I'm Thankful For

I'm thankful for being able to go to a catholic school. Most Christian children don't have enough money to go to a private school. Some people take it for granted. When some people actually deserve to be heard. Also thankful to be at a catholic school because my parent sacrificed so much for me to be here, especially with four kids in the house. As you know public schools are free and catholic schools cost a lot of money because it's private. But catholic schools have something that public schools don't have. Public schools don't have religion. When I used to go to public school, I never really liked the teachers because they had something that was missing. But here the teachers had something that the other school didn't have.

And here I'm able to celebrate my religion in peace. Most schools you'll get in trouble if you mention God's name. Some people ask if going to a catholic school is worth it since it's so expensive, then I say yes because there you get a real education. So, that is what I'm thankful for.
