You can be thankful for so many things so easily. On Christmas, people all gather together, thanksgiving too! People even gather around on Halloween. I am thankful for too many things. But I hope that I will inspire this reader to be thankful for the things that I am thankful for. One of the many things that I am thankful for is the teachers. The teachers love to teach us new things and we love to learn the stuff that they teach. That brings up how much I love school and how I would be so thankful to graduate. I can't wait to learn more exciting stuff!

There are a lot more things that I am thankful for. One of them is sports. I would probably be crying if we didn't have any sports. I watch college and professional sports but I also play basketball, baseball and even a little bit of soccer. I am also thankful for my friends. They always stay by my side when I need them and I like them very much. That's why I love my friend's college sports and my own sports!

There are still so many things that I am thankful for but I am very thankful for field trips we have at school. Especially the one that we went to Massachusetts in 5th grade. We had a very great time and we even went on a coach bus! I am also thankful for the custodians because they keep our school clean. Walking down the halls I watch the custodians doing their best keeping this school clean like a beaver working on his dam until it is perfect.

Being thankful is being grateful for the great things that happen in your life. I have a whole bunch of these. I am super thankful for the lunch ladies that make our lunch and serve it to us. I could smell the wonderful scents all the way from my classroom. I also love and am very thankful for books. Without books, the great people in the world wouldn't have enough knowledge. I hope I can be one of these people one day. I think that books are one of the most important things in the world!

This is probably the most important thing in the world to me... MY FAMILY! I am super thankful for my family because they love me so much and they care about me. Also, I am super thankful for my grandparents because they also love me so much and they bring me everywhere! I am so thankful for my parents, my grandparents, and my whole world wide family!

In conclusion, people do gather together for a lot of things. So, I am thankful for so many things and I hope I have inspired you to be thankful for these things to.
