

I Give Thanks to...

I value many things in life such as my family, food, and a place to call home. These things are very important to me because not everyone is as lucky as me to be able to have these things so to have shelter and food I find it very important.

I give thanks to my mom for always doing her best to take care of me and just loving me the way she does. She has been there through thick and thin, and has helped me face the story of life, and when I'm with my mom I feel so safe. I am also grateful for food. There are so many people who don't have food so to always have it available to me; I am very blessed. I personally love food and I know others do to so I always try to donate cans whenever I can. I am very thankful for a place to call home as well. If I were not to have a home my family and I would probably not be in the best situation but thank god that is not case.

I value many things like my mom, food, and home; to say least. Everyday I feel very gifted and blessed to have all of these things but I know not everyone has what I have so I find everything should be valued
