

What I Am Thankful For

I am thankful for Saturday and Sunday.

They are like two fun days.

You get to sit back, relax and no mathematics or any work packets.

I have a lot of time to play in the bright sunshine.

I can wake up whenever I want and spend time having happy head bunts.

I can go to parties and don't have to be Mr. Smartie.

I can go out to eat or go to a beach.

It's a two day vacation and going place to place in the train station.

I don't have to work or order a book from a library clerk.

A break from place value charts and no need for book smarts.

No pencils or any schools utensils.

Then here comes Monday, the child workday.
