

What I am Thankful for and who I appreciate.

I am thankful for my two brothers. When I was six, I was very lonely. I played by myself at home. I looked forward to seeing my friends. On May 9, 2010 my baby brother Chris was born. I was so happy. I played with him every single day. On February 2, 2015 my other brother Nathaniel Anthony was born. He is so cute. Right now, he is trying to learn how to walk and talk. Once Chris and I were playing peg ball in my room, the ball hit the window and popped right on Nate's head. Nate didn't even cry. I am so happy to have two younger siblings. I am thankful for my family.
