

11/5/15

What I am thankful for this year!

Since the pilgrims came to America in 1620 and started thanksgiving in 1621 we have been thankful for almost everything. Today we are all thankful for people who keep us safe in school, at home and all over the world. As well as being able to have a full meal in front of us every meal of the day, this is what I'm thankful for.

I am thankful for those things as well as some other things, such as being able to help my old bus driver Nancy with her horses. "Come on girl, trot." I said as she started going faster, I have been helping Nancy with her horses for a few months and before I left today I got to ride an Adullcion! Her name was Domnia , I have never ridden her before and it was scary , but once I got on her it was so fun , I hope I get to ride her again. This is one of the many things I am thankful for.

Saying that I have a list of things I am thankful for, I should say I am thankful for my family. I live with my mom and her boyfriend, Mike. I have an older sister, Jessey who is in 8th grade and a younger sister, Ally who is in 4th grade. We just moved into Mike's house last summer, and so far it's ok. I share a room upstairs with Ally and Jessey has her own room, like usual. As well as my family I am thankful for my friends, my best friend Casey and Jessica and my other friends, Morgan, Jordan, Abigail, Katie and more!

Next, I am thankful for my new house, we were running out of money at my old house so my mom said that we were going to move in with Mike because it was more affordable and she really loves him.

Since my parents' divorce my mom found someone and happily my dad now found someone. He met a very nice lady named Patricia who he soon moved in with and I am very happy and thankful about that.

Finally, I am thankful for all the new changes in my life, when I thought they wouldn't they turned out to be great changes. I have a new house, with a horse farm in the back, I have a lot of friends , and a good family, and even though my parents are divorced they found someone that made them happy again. So I am very happy and thankful about that.