

My brother helps even though I am sometimes rude to him. He is so smart and I have always wanted to be like him. He also does his homework and prepares for tests while still helping me with academics, sports, and anything else that I need.

I am thankful for my brother

by: Gabrielle Gitman