

I am thankful for my family because they are all part and I feel bad for half of my family because on October 23 a big storm came to Mexico it was horrible good thing my family in Mexico is safe. I am also thankful for my mom boss wife her name is Alexander Sorbello cause she rented my clarinet she invited me and my mom for church on October 25 because Spanish and English people came together to eat and she been kind to people. And I am thankful for my teachers all in the school because they look out for the kids in the school. I am thankful for my mom because she has been a hard worker and contacts my aunt in Mexico. I for my friends cause they all ways where nice. I am also thankful for mom family to camp with them all the way to bufflo. I am even thankful for mom friends at her work on October 26 they leave for Puerto Rico and they been kind. And that's what I am thankful for.
