I am writing this letter to express my gratitude for everything that I have received this year. I am thankful for ~~food that I could stay hleasy and to be~~ food that I could stay hleasy and strog. And thank you for giving close that we need we are not going to be naked outside right so we need to have close. We need to have shoe because your feet would be so dirty and i do not want that. And we should have a house to live with your family and friends to play with even have a sister. We Neend Water because if you need to exerciting around the park and you say that you are relly thirsty because your heart beat so fast that you relly need to drink water. We need to have a bed that we cold stay warm and comterfull the flour is to hard to sleep in the flour and it is going to be could and you relly need of bed sinerly, Emily Ramirez 301
