

What I'm Thankful For

By Jacqueline Atchley

What I'm thankful for,
It's very hard to say,
I'm thankful for my family,
My country, friends, and home
But the thing I'm most thankful for,
Are not items, places, or the clothes on my back,
There the people, people, people all around,
Who are most extraordinary in every way,
The people who I care about, and who care about me,
The people who take care of my needs,
From my health to my education,
Even those who annoy me,
I can't be thankful for enough,
For every person you meet,
Is someone who's making you stronger,
The people I'm most thankful for are my family and friends,
I am thankful for my friends Jessica and Sophia,
Who are more unique to me than others,
Jessica is quiet and shy, but has strong opinions,
Sophia's a little wild and adventurous,
But she has my best interest at heart,
And even though we are different,
We go together very nicely,
I'm also thankful for Olivia, and Meiling, and Ellie,
I'm thankful for so many people,
Like Mrs. Lax, Mrs. Gianatiempo, Ms. Kearns, and Ms. Raichoudhury,
I'm thankful for my parents, grandparents, and other family,
Plus everyone I' met and more,
But the people I'm most thankful for,
Even higher than those that I've listed,
Are everyone, including those that I've mentioned,
Who have walked through my door,
And into my heart.
