There are many reasons why I am thankful for many things in my life. One thing I am thankful for is my parent's. This is because they love me and I love them too. They help me with my homework and check it to make sure I got the right answers. My parent's are always there for me. Another thing I am thankful for is for my sibling's. I am thankful for them because my brother plays with me when I feel lonely. Also, he is the best brother I ever had. I am also thankful for my sister. She is nice because she helps me with the homework when I need help. She is really nice to me and she shares some of her stuff with me. In addition, I am thankful for my best friends. I am thankful for them because when I feel sad or mad they always will be there for me. They always hear my thoughts and they are nice friends. We play and talk about us. They are the best friends I ever had. The last thing I am thankful for is my wonderful family and friends. They always are there for me when I feel sad or I need their advice. In conclusion these are the reasons why I am thankful for many things in my life.
