

Everybody has things they're thankful for, even I do. Some of these things will have an impact on my life, and hopefully it is a good one. The holiday, Thanksgiving, all started back in 1621 with the pilgrims. I have many things I am thankful for and I am going to share them all with you.

One of the many things I am thankful for is to have people who love me. This is very important because everyone has to have someone who loves them. In tough times they will motivate you to push through it. They will always be there whenever you need them because they love you. So you can see that I am very thankful to have people who love me. Another thing I am thankful for is to have clean water and good food. I am lucky to have clean and pure water that I can drink and use in my life. I am also lucky for the good and nutritious food I have to eat. This is helpful because it helps me stay alive and not get famished. Those are two of the many things I am thankful for.

The next thing I am thankful for a I need them. They are also good to have as peers. I am also thankful for my teachers that want to help me get an education so someday I can get a good job and become a good person. They are also always there if I need them. They give me the motivation to keep going and not give up on something. Keep reading to find out more things I am thankful for.

Now this is one of the most wonderful things I am thankful for. I am very thankful to live in a great community. Many people in the world don't have this necessity, but luckily I do. This community is a small community so we all know each other. We all work together to help keep our community clean and amazing. That is why I love living in this community. The last thing I am thankful for is to have a warm house to live in and not be homeless. I can come home from school and know that I have a wonderful warm and comfy home. So I am very thankful for all of those amazing things.

Nothing is better than having something you are thankful for. I hope throughout the essay you got the point that I am very thankful for every little thing in my life because someday it will have an impact my life. So, this Thanksgiving I will think of more things I am thankful for.
