What Am I Thankful For

Thanksgiving is the time of year,
When people come together to celebrate and cheer,
For the many things that they are thankful for,
Family and friends and happy times galore!

With the table set ready for a feast,
I count my blessings to say the least.
Turkey, stuffing, apple pie,
Brings happiness to this guy.

I am thankful from the start,
Loved ones and friends,
Shelter and food,
These are the things that warm my heart.

With the cool, crisp air,
We sit around and share,
All the things that bless our heart,
Thanksgiving Day is just a small part!
