By Michael Bischoff

I'm thankful for my mom and dad,
All the happy memories I've had,
All the sad, angry, confused ones too,
And that so often I don't feel blue,
For all my friends, they think I'm funny,
Also I'm thankful for saving money
The ones who educate me, to who prepare for my future,
not past,
My legs they make me fast,
That is what I'm thankful for.
Oh yes, and also Dumbledore.
