

I am thankful for my family because some children don't have homes or family and might not be treated the way I am. Also I am thankful for my health because some children have disabilities, some have cancers, and other illnesses. It's not fair for some because most people like me have an easier life. Also I am happy!!!! So that's what i am thankful for.

Mihayla Gangani