THIS IS A ROUGH DRAFT.....

Thankful having food and roof to live in.

Having a brother to learn from.

A teacher that will teach me on how to do my best in school.

November is a month to remind us on what we value the most.

Known that I can trust my parent advices.

You are the best mom that a child could have.

One of my favorite toys is my Xbox One system.

Unconditional love and care from my family.
