

What I am Thankful for
By: Michael Twomey jR

Oh what I am thankful for.....

Oh so,so, many things....

My mom, my dad, grandma, and grandpa

My sister and all my friends

My teachers, coaches, guardians and so, so, much more....

My baseball and bat and stick and my puck always at my side

And my jacket and hat that keep me warm

My movies and toys that are always there to be watched and played each day

The Chicago Cubs and New York Rangers and the Utah Jazz as well

The turkey and stuffing and parsnips and carrots put out on Thanksgiving Day

The big, huge balloons, bustling down the aisle during the big parade

And the band, choir, and music I hear each and every day

Bob Dylan, Bob Marley, Freddie Mercury, and all of music's greats

My trumpet and bagpipes, and tin whistle that can never, ever be forgotten

Joanie Madden, Liam O' Flynn, and Luka Bloom; the Gods of Celtic music
And of course my bicycle that I paddle on every Sunday My clothes and sweatshirts and shirts and socks that simply cannot be lived without My blankets and bed and sheets and slippers that I wake up to every morning
Watching the Muppets, The Peanuts movie, Shawn the Sheep, Inside Out, and Big Hero 6 on the big, wide television
Flowers, animal, plants, trees and H2o
My toys and football, but most of all the gift of life and love God gave us all!

↓ The best type of love,
family and companionship
