

This year there are many things I am thankful for. One thing I am thankful for is the life I was given. Another thing is food if we didn't have food we would not survive. Finally is the earth that we were given and we would not have friends Or family to love and care for. These are reasons why I am thankful for things.

