Be Thankful

Human beings don't often think about what they're thankful for. Thanksgiving is a wonderful time of the year to remind people of what they're thankful for. There are numerous topics to be thankful for. However, two topics that are significant to me is having a home and food.

I'm so grateful for a home. Forty out of a hundred students are homeless. I feel sorry for these kids because while I'm all cozy in my home, children have to move from shelter to shelter. This affects their education, and also sets a terrible reputations for them.

People are also suffering because they barely have food to eat. A person has to survive on a single sandwich for a whole week! While the person has to save the sandwich for a week, I eat a whole sandwich for breakfast. If I was the person's shoes, I don't know what I would have done.

To a lot of people, our lives are luxury. It takes my breath away knowing that people live like this. People won't be able to enjoy Thanksgiving or even have turkey. As you can see, this is why I'm thankful for a home and food.
