

Senator Martins' Project

By: Jake Vitale - Grade 5 - Ms. Cervone – John Street School, Franklin Square, NY

I am thankful for many things. Some of them are: Freedom, Family, Pets, Troops, and my Home.

I am thankful for troops, because without troops, we would be unfairly taxed, would probably serve the king of Britain because of the American Revolution, and even if we won that part, maybe we would have been controlled by Nazis from WW2, and even if we beat THAT, we could be controlled by Jihad countries, like Taliban, Iraq, and Isis. The troops are trying to make us safe by fighting all of these nations that want to go to war with the United States. These nations would be piling into America and killing every single citizen here. But, thanks to our troops, that's not happening. That's why I'm thankful for the Troops who fight other countries for the safety of our country.

I'm also thankful for my family because my family loves me and always has my back. Even though we have our ups and downs, in the end, we always love each other. If I really needed a family and I didn't have one, I would be homeless, and I would be lonely, miserable, and REALLY upset. I thank god I have a family. I love every bit of my family. Thank you so much God for my family.

I am even thankful for my pets because pets always make me happy. I always ask if I can get another pet. (Even though I already have a cat and a dog, used to have 5 fish, and used to have 2 little frogs.) But still, pets are AWESOME!! When I'm sad, my cat or/and dog always cheer me up because I know that they're mine. I always get a little if not very sad when I see these pet shelter commercials because I love pets, and they're harmless! They don't deserve to be left alone in a shelter with no owner! They deserve to be loved. I love pets, and I'm pretty sure you do to.

I'm thankful for my home, because I feel SUPER bad for homeless people, and I sure don't want to be one. I love my warm, protective home because my home is where my life started. (If you know what I mean.) I would be unprotected and cold, and I would be miserable. I am

SO thankful for my house! Without my house, my life is HUGELY incomplete.

Lastly, I'm thankful for my friends, because they have my back when I'm in need. They always make me happy, and they are just awesome. If I didn't have my friends, I would not be as happy as I am today with friends. I would still be happy because I have family, and all of these things I am thankful for. But, friends are another thing that completed my life!

Happiness is the key to a good life. Without these things I am thankful for, I am not happy. Thank you, God, for all of these things. I am so thankful that it is hard to explain. I would also like to thank you, Senator Martins, for making me do this project because I get to tell people what I'm thankful for, other than only my family at Thanksgiving, after days of cooking (by my Grammy) and then only 15 minutes after eating I go about my happy life but I am Thankful.
