

Thanksgiving

Remember the Pilgrims, oh so long ago
They founded this holiday when things were all so slow
They worked through the months and learned how to grow
Though little they did know

But in 1621
The harvest was a plentiful one
They celebrated through three days
Much did they play

So this year just thank them a little
For creating all this family fun
Who and what do I mean
The Pilgrims work all done

By: Tabia Maryam