

What I'm Thankful For

At this time of the year, it is good to take time and think of what you are thankful for. One thing that I'm thankful for is my family. Which consists of.....my brother, mom, dad, and grandma. I'm also thankful for my pets. I have 3 horses, 1 dog and 3 cats. My three horses are named Oreo, Snickers, and Zena. My one dog's name is Sam. Then last but not least my three cats names are Zoe, Fluffy, and Jamie. The last thing I'm thankful for is football. Without these I would be lost in my life.

My family is very loveable. I love the four people in my house. They are my mom, dad, brother, and my grandma. They all are hard on me, especially my grandma! When I get home and say "I have a test coming up", she says "ok" but I go, play and lie down. She then says, "come on Cole start studying or hit the books". My mom is the same way, but says, "if you fail you are going to get your phone taken away". My dad says the same exact thing. Finally, there is my brother, Andrew. He is always there to remind me to man up at times. Andrew hates when I cry or when I am upset. At the end of the day they still all love me for who I am. It is because they love me so much, that they care about my life. That's is one thing I'm thankful for.

The next thing I'm thankful for are my pets. They are just loveable and when you're sad they make you happy. One fun fact about one of my horse's, whose name is Zena, which is a Friesian is that she was born on the same day I was born April 2. Then, there's my miniature horse. His name is Snickers. Then there is my third horse who is a mix. His name is Oreo. Next, there are my three cats. They are just loveable. Last but not least is my dog, Sam. He is just loveable, funny, etc. By funny I mean he thinks he's a person. He jumps up on the couch and lies there like he's a person.

Then last but not least there is football. Football means so much to me because it's the families sport. Plus it is the sport my brother and I both play in which we have the same positions, too. We both play defensive tackle and offensive linemen. Also football is the sport I excell in. Plus I get to make new friends like Elijah Mallard and Ryan Lombardi. Those are the reason why I love football.

These are the things I'm thankful for. There are many other things I could've picked. However, the things I picked mean the most me. Without my family, pets and football, I wouldn't be the Cole Pogelschek I am today.

The End
