

Who I'm Thankful For

I'm thankful for many people in my life, but the most important person to me is my mother. My mom is always there to support me through the hardest times in my life. If I have a problem, she listens to my annoying complaining until we resolve the problem. My mother also helps me become a better person. For example, she teaches me that kindness is the key to a successful life. Also, my mom is my role model because she is kind, caring, and loving. She wakes up early in the morning to get me fresh bread for my sandwich and then works the entire day to get me everything that I need to survive. My mom is my inspiration as well. I want to be just like her when I grow up, a successful and strong woman.

In conclusion, my amazing mother is a loving and marvelous woman who will do anything to protect and shelter her loved ones even if it means risking her life. To sum it all up, I am very thankful that she is with my family and in my life through everything that happens.

By: Julia Zera

